

I am writing to urge you to reject the NAB's petition 04-160. I am an XM subscriber and reap a range of benefits from this service including their traffic and weather services. It is my belief that the NAB is feeling the heat of competition and attempting to use the FCC to help them gain the competitive edge that their antiquated technology cannot give them. Why not let this battle be fought in the free market arena.